

Listening, Learning and Healing

Women in Muslim Religion and Culture

Women in Muslim Religion and Culture

Taliban's ban on women education in Afghanistan and the veiling issue in Iran have raised doubts and confusion in the West and America about the rights of women in Islam and Muslim culture.

This Online non-credit certificate course aims to discuss the issue of women rights in both religious and cultural perspectives. Nazareth University, IIIT Chair and Hickey Center mission and vision is to educate public on critical issues for peaceful coexistence.

When: August 7-10,2023 (Monday-Thursday)

Time : 7-8:30PM Via Zoom, Registration Fee: $49.00 (Please write Checks to Nazareth University, IIIT Chair and Hickey Center and mail it to Muhammad Shafiq, Nazareth University, 4245 East Ave., Rochester, NY 14618)

Speakers and Topics for discussion:

August 7, - Women in the Qur'an, (Dr. Muhammad Shafiq, Nazareth U.)

Aug.8, - Women and Veiling in Muslim Culture and religion (Dr. Etin Anwar, HWS College)

Aug. 9, - Women in Muslim History (Dr. Shalahudin Kafrawi, HWS College)

Aug. 10, - Western and Muslim Feminism (Dr. Etin Anwar, HWS College)

Recommended reading:

1. Making Gender in the Intersection of the Human and the Divine

Edited by Thomas Donlin-Smith and Muhammad Shafiq

2. A Genealogy of Islamic Feminism: Pattern and Change in Indonesia

by Etin Anwar

Registration for the course ends on July 15, Please sign in blew and send us your registration.

Thanks

Woman in Muslim Religion and Culture

When

Monday, Aug. 7th, 7pm to Thursday, Aug. 10th,
8:30pm

Where

Virtual